3. In 1947, during the Congressional hearings in connection with the National Security Act of 1947, [REDACTED] actively campaigned against the federalization of security intelligence activities. At that time he displayed charts and gave evidence pointing to the erroneous inferences that the British security intelligence activities were not federalized and claiming that the German security intelligence, during the war, was federalized.

June 1953

[REDACTED] advised that he had discussed his difficulties with CIA with Senators Mundt and Bridges. This was followed by a request to the DCI to appear before Senators Mundt, Bridges, Ferguson and McCarran.

5 May 1954

[REDACTED] advised Mr. Kirkpatrick and Brig. Gen. Carter Clark that Senator McCarthy wanted him to work for him. He further asked whether his organization couldn't be used as a counter-intelligence vehicle for watching the activities of U. S. personnel overseas.

Brig. Gen. Carter Clark called on Senators Jenner, Bridges, Ferguson and Mundt and Congressman Cole and advised them that [REDACTED] had taken the initiative in terminating his operation.
